REALTORS® HONORED

Members of the REALTOR® Association of Southern Kentucky were honored for their achievements at the association's annual banquet held January 4, 2016. The REALTOR® of the Year Award, the highest award given by the association, was presented to Stacey Ferguson of Coldwell Banker Legacy Real Estate. The award is based on REALTOR® spirit and involvement in the association and the community. Ferguson became a REALTOR® in 2003 and earned her broker's license in 2014. She is a member of the association's Honor Society and was the 2015 Vice-Chair of the Membership Services Committee. She is a past president of the association, holding that position in 2011 and has continuously served the association since joining. Ferguson is a graduate of the 2015 Leadership Bowling Green class and works closely with the Alzheimer's support organization.

Lynn Caudill of Coldwell Banker The Advantage Group, based in Franklin, was the recipient of the Distinguished Service Award. He has been a member of the association since 1996. He serves on various committees of the association and is an elected director. He is very active in his community and church, serving on many boards and committees.

The Charles W. Long Award is given to new members of the association and is based on criteria that include association involvement and education. Jimmy Falls, of Weichert REALTORS®, The Hunt Group was the recipient. He received his real estate license in 2013.

Maegan Hance of SERVPRO of Allen, Barren, Hart Green and Taylor Counties was honored as the 2015 Business Partner of the Year. The award is given to an associate member that works closely with the association on projects and committees.
